Sandy Springs Council of Neighborhoods Hosts "Meet the Candidates Forum" District 1 City Council Election

Sandy Springs, GA, October 8, 2007 - The Sandy Springs Council of Neighborhoods will host a "Meet the Candidates Forum" at Brandon Hall School, 1701 Brandon Hall Drive - 30350, on Sunday, October 28th from 7:00-8:30 pm. The purpose of the gathering is to give Sandy Springs residents an opportunity to meet the candidates for the District 1 council seat, participate in a discussion of issues and concerns facing our community and provide a chance to ask the prospective council members pertinent questions. All homeowner groups, neighbors and interested persons are welcome to attend. Parking is free. All District 1 candidates have agreed to attend; they are Elizabeth Huffner, Doug MacGinnitie, Mark Thomas and Vicki Willard.

"This is such an important election for our city" said Larry Young, Council of Neighborhoods President, "we encourage Sandy Springs residents to join us to question, listen and hopefully choose the candidate they feel best to lead District 1 for the next 2 years." The City of Sandy Springs special election will be held November 6, 2007. Only residents of District 1 will be eligible to vote in this special election.

For additional information on "Meet the Candidates Forum", contact Katherine Feeman or visit www.SandySpringsCouncil.org.
